

Ben Brown grew up in Perth, Western Australia. He attended the University of Western Australia graduating with Bachelor Of Commerce and Bachelor of Science (Marine Biology). He also holds an MBA from the University of Western Australia and SDA Bocconi. Following a move to London in 2000 he worked in various tech start-ups which led to a subsequent move to Malta in 2008.

In between raising a young family he is tech entrepreneur focusing on early stage startups across a number of sectors. He also is active in helping the VIS Refugee Scholarship Fund raise funds and is the Chair of the VIS Finance Committee.